JFK May Order 150,000 Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy, acting in the face of a Communist build-up in Cuba and other international tensions, sought authority today to order 150,000 reservists to active duty.

The White House said Kennedy would send proposed legislation to grant him this power to Congress this afternoon.

This legislation would place a ceiling of 150,000 men from the reserves of all the armed forces and limit the period of service to no more than 12 months.

Kennedy could exercise the authority from the time Congress adjourns until next Feb. 28, about two months after the Senate and House of Representatives reconvene.

During that time, the defence secretary could extend the terms of service of the reservists for not more than 12 months.

No member of the ready reserve called to duty involuntarily at the height of the Berlin crisis in 1961 could be called back again unless he volunteers.

SITUATION CRITICAL

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy was asking the new authority to order reservists to duty "because of the critical nature of the international situation."

Salinger said he was referring to the "general international situation." He said reporters would have to draw their own conclusions when asked whether the move was inspired particularly by the Soviet-backed buildup of armed strength in Cuba.

The legislation was immediately assured bipartisan backing when Senator Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, ranking Republican member of the Senate armed services committee, announced he will join with Chairman Richard B. Russell (Dem. Ga.) in sponsoring it in the Senate.

Russell said the committee "will take up the legislation at the earliest possible date next week, and, in my opinion, there is no question Congress will grant the president this authority."

"The situation in Cuba and Berlin is so critical that we cannot afford to fail to take steps necessary to maintain and safeguard our national security."

VERNON LAWYER COMMITTED FOR COUNTY COURT TRIAL

VERNON (Staff) — Vernon Lawyer Horace W. Galbraith was committed for trial in County Court here on three counts of receiving certain monies on behalf of a client and failing to account for same, District Magistrate D. M. McDonald ruled yesterday.

Magistrate McDonald gave his decision after a lengthy preliminary hearing July 19 - 20 when Mr. Galbraith was originally charged on five counts of theft laid by John W. Toma. Mr. Galbraith elected earlier to be tried by judge without a jury.

It is expected Judge Gordon Lindsay will set a date for the trial at the fall sitting.

Soviet Argument Rejected By U.S. On 'Copter Flights

BERLIN (Reuters) — The United States has rejected a Communist argument that American military helicopter flights over East Berlin are illegal.

A U.S. military spokesman said here last night that the four-power agreements setting up the Berlin control zone imposed no limitation on the nature or purpose of flights over this divided city's eastern zone.

"We have always exercised our rights based on these agreements and will continue to do so," he added.

Although the Communists made no direct communication to the United States, Britain or France on the matter, an East German foreign ministry official said Thursday that "unapproved flights of American helicopters over regions of East Germany are only apt to heighten tensions."

East Germany considers East Berlin as its territory. The

Soviets Fire At U.S. Car

BERLIN (AP) — American authorities today soft-pedalled the Soviet firing on a U.S. Army sedan in East Germany.

Soviet soldiers fired about 40 shots at a U.S. car that got too close to a red military train Tuesday. Only one shot hit the car, and no one was hurt.

U.S. officers concealed the affair until it leaked out Thursday night. The army in Germany still had issued no official information today, although the state department released a sketchy account in Washington.

The secrecy thrown around the incident was designed to minimize its importance.

Skiff Saves 10 Lives

PRINCE RUPERT (C) — A tiny eight-foot skiff saved the lives of two adults and eight children when a 30-foot gill-netter caught fire Thursday night off Digby Island, three miles southwest of here.

The eight—including a 10-day-old baby—clambered into the skiff and drifted 300 yards before being picked up by a ferry service boat.

All were taken to hospital for observation and released.

Aboard the gillnetter Elsie A were Philip Auckland, his teenage son, Mrs. Laura York and her five children—Thelma, Tony, 5, Lyle, 3, and the baby.

Tony Crawley, operator of the ferry service craft, said he believed the fire aboard the fishing boat was started by ignited gasoline.

Italian Doctors Stage Strike

ROME (AP) — Doctors in public hospitals throughout Italy went on strike again today, demanding higher pay and better working conditions.

About 22,000 doctors were called out for 48 hours, ending at midnight Saturday. They went on strike for 24 hours last week.

The doctors set up an emergency service to receive patients for urgent cases. Private hospitals were not affected.

Alberta Hit By Snow

EDMONTON (CP) — Snow fell early today over a wide area of the Alberta foothills and Peace River country as cold weather moved from the north.

Farmers, struggling to harvest a bumper crop, also face the prospect of frost tonight.

The weather office said a mixture of snow and rain was reported in most high areas east of the Rockies. At Calgary, Penhold and Lethbridge snow still was falling at 8:30 a.m. and visibility was reduced to three-quarters of a mile.

"It's a fairly heavy fall, but most of it should melt quickly as temperatures are above freezing," the forecaster said.

Rain was falling low areas of Alberta and in western Saskatchewan. At Coronation 1.7 inches of rain fell overnight.

Clearing skies followed the rain and snow and temperatures ranged 20 degrees below normal. This brought a risk of frost tonight in central Alberta, the Peace River district and as far east as Saskatoon and Roseburg.

Armoured Cars Out Says U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic sources said Thursday night the Western allies are considering a further Berlin order, telling the Russians they cannot use armored cars in transporting their soldiers to the Soviet war memorial in West Berlin.

It was understood that U.S., British and French representatives were agreed in principle on the order but its exact timing has not yet been decided.

Last Tuesday the Russians conformed to a Western order that they use a Berlin wall passage closer to the Soviet war memorial than the Checkpoint Charlie entrance they had been going through.

However, the Russians continued to send their troops to the memorial in armored personnel carrier carriers, a practice which they started after some Russian military buses were stoned by angry West Berliners in the aftermath of the killing of a fleeing East German at the wall.

SET UP RESEARCH CENTRE

Youths Survive Torture By New York Hoodlums

NEW YORK (AP) — Three teen-age boys, their bodies torn with flesh wounds inflicted with a beer can opener, walked barefooted along the bruising stone bed of a railroad track.

Behind them walked their torturers.

Every so often, one of the three torturers—boys just a little older — would hit the three youths with a heavy iron bar or kick them again with the beer can opener.

Their arms bound, the three were helpless against the onslaught.

At one point, one of the three was snatched over the head with a beer bottle.

But the three kept walking, the stones cutting into their bare feet.

During the sadistic march, the three victims were forced to engage in immoral acts, among themselves and with the two older boys.

Finally, after walking more than a mile, the three victims were given a warning and pushed over a railroad embankment.

ARREST 2 TEEN-AGERS

A HIGH NOTE BEFORE THE CONCERT

There's a lot to finishing a theatre that the average man never sees. Take this view for instance, where a workman, high on the Kelowna Fire Brigade's ladder, puts some finishing touches on an awkward spot with his paint brush as the Kelowna Community Theatre is made ready for its Sept. 13 official opening. Interior work is well advanced and Kelowna residents are asked to support the drive for funds which will ameliorate lighting installation costs by attending the opening concert featuring Metropolitan Opera star Teresa Stratas.

SEARCH ON FOR FOUR OTHERS

Expectant Mother Lives As Fishpacker Founders

VANCOUVER (CP) — An expectant mother was pulled alive from the waters of Georgia Strait early today as the search continued for four others persons aboard a fishpacker that sank during the night.

Mrs. Jimmy Case said she clung to a fish box for five hours before searchers found her in choppy seas near the Fraser River, a few miles southwest of Vancouver.

She said she and her husband floated side by side for some time, holding on to two fish boxes lashed together. But Mr. Case and the other three men from the vessel were not in sight when Mrs. Case was recovered.

Mrs. Case said she fears two men sleeping below deck may not have escaped when the vessel went down.

CONDITION SATISFACTORY

The woman, expecting a child in a month, was taken to hospital in what was described as "reasonably good" condition.

The RCAF dispatched a two-engined Albatross aircraft and seven vessels were ordered into the area, fighting heavy waters and a 30 m.p.h. wind.

The Loretta B sent its brief distress call shortly before midnight. The search was carried on by flares and spotlights before dawn.

The rescue centre was burdened at the same time with three other reports of craft in difficulty.

Meeting Held To Decide On Return To Kootenays

GRAND FORKS, B.C. (CP) — Sons of Freedom Doukhobors called a halt on their mass march to the Fraser Valley today and held a meeting to decide whether they should continue or go back to the Kootenays.

The halt was called after the Freedomites staged a mass rally Thursday night outside the home of the leader of the Orthodox Doukhobors.

Upwards of 750 radical Sons of Freedom Doukhobors descended on the farm of Orthodox leader John Verigin with a request that they be permitted to sleep in his fields.

"We have turned out backs on you," shouted Verigin, leader of more than 10,000 Orthodox Doukhobors, from his farm gate. "You are not our people."

The Freedomites, a small section of the Doukhobor population, stopped at this border community 250 miles east of Vancouver on a trek to Agassiz in the Fraser Valley.

The announced intention when they left their capital of Krestova was to settle near the federal prison at Agassiz, 80 miles east of Vancouver, where many of their number are serving sentences for terrorism.

"Have mercy on us and on our children," called one of the Freedomites to Verigin. "We have come a long way and we are tired."

"No," said Verigin. "For God's sake go."

The marchers had permission to spend the night in a park near here. But they marched right past it to get to the Verigin farm.

RETURN TO GILPIN

Most of the group stood at the side of a highway and sang hymns — some knelt and prayed — for four hours before they decided to return to Gilpin, a Freedomite community seven miles east of here where they spent Wednesday night.

There were some indications some Freedomites would return immediately to Krestova because deserted farm animals need attention.

The group has marched and driven only 100 miles since a spur-of-the-moment decision to leave Krestova headquarters Sunday.

Kent municipality has called for removal of Doukhobor prisoners at Agassiz to another prison so the Freedomites will stop their march. Telegrams requesting this action were sent to Attorney-General Robert Bonner of British Columbia, Justice Minister Fleming and Works Minister Fulton.

There has been no government reaction so far.

Municipal bylaws have been tightened in Agassiz to prevent the erection of shacks on public land.

SOBLEN'S CONDITION SAID STILL SERIOUS

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Robert Soblen's heart was reported flagging today and doctors expressed anxiety about his condition. Nurses kept constant watch on the pulse of the runaway spy.

Soblen remained unconscious more than 30 hours after he knocked himself out with an overdose of barbiturates in a move to avoid life imprisonment in the United States.

Dief To Propose Trade Expansion

LONDON (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker arrived today for the conference of Commonwealth prime ministers and intimated that Canada may put forward proposals that would allow a major increase in Commonwealth trade.

"I believe there are alternatives to Britain joining the European Common Market," Diefenbaker told an airport press conference after his RCAF plane landed following the 9½-hour flight from Ottawa.

He declined to be drawn on specific plans Canada may have and said the alternatives to be discussed at the conference "will not be drastic."

But they would "provide the opportunity for an expansion of trade within the Commonwealth to a greater degree than ever before."

The Canadian leader also said he feels that the trade terms of Commonwealth exports so far worked out in Britain's negotiations with the Common Market should be reconsidered.

REFERS TO GOODS?

He did not say which of the tentative agreements negotiated at Brussels he opposes. However, the only major agreement affecting Canada involves manufactured goods entering Britain.

The first item on Diefenbaker's itinerary was a luncheon in his hotel suite with Australian Prime Minister Menzies and New Zealand Prime Minister Holyoake.

He described it as an "informal" meeting and told reporters they would discuss their mutual problem of Britain markets for agricultural exports from their three countries—one of the major issues still unresolved in British Common Market negotiations.

Sister's Help Thing of Past; He Gets Year

A man whose sister got tired of bailing him out of his misadventures was sentenced to 12 months in Oakalla Prison Farm in Kelowna court today.

Lawrence Carl Tarasoff, no fixed address, pleaded guilty to a charge of false pretences filed by RCMP after a worthless $50 cheque turned up at Lakeview grocery store last fall.

Tarasoff was arrested in Fernie and returned to stand trial here. Court officer R. F. Foran presented a list of previous convictions for false pretences and told court the man had spent two years and six months at the B.C. penitentiary in 1960. The accused confirmed the list.

Cons. Foreman said the accused's sister, who wasn't identified, had on previous occasions, paid for the worthless cheques but on this local one, refused and instead co-operated with RCMP on his arrest.

Bear Meets Man, Looks, Loses

One family that won't suffer any meat shortage this winter is that of Mr. Bill Klaus, RR 2, Kelowna. A railway employee, Mr. Klaus was inspecting truck yesterday morning when he spotted a large black bear lying beside the road almost opposite the drive-in movie.

Neither the bear nor Mr. Klaus moved for a second or two and then the man broke for his home nearby. He returned in a few minutes with his .30-30 rifle and to his amazement, the bear was dead in its tracks. The bullet had struck squarely in his throat and severed his jugular. Mr. Klaus had his bear but it was another problem how to get it home. It took four men almost two hours to drag the carcass the few hundred yards to the Klaus home. The bear weighed close to 300 pounds and, when strung up, was over six feet long. Needless to say, the Klaus family is anticipating some tasty bear steaks this winter.

Water Resources Body Is Not Yet A Reality

Establishment of a federal-provincial corporation or commission to oversee water resource development would be a major stride toward means for comprehensive planning for integrated use of this resource, a Saskatchewan water resource executive said today. But, while suggesting such moves for improved administration in this field, he expressed pessimism about the possibilities of either proposal taking place.

The suggestion came from director of the South Saskatchewan river development commission, a body established by the Saskatchewan River Irrigation and power project now being built.

COMMISSION POSSIBLE

He told the B.C. Natural Resources Conference, in a discussion on law and the agencies involved in resource development, that constitutionally, it appears possible for one or more provinces and the federal government to establish a corporation or commission to undertake the planning and control of river basin development.

Water development projects no longer could be considered in isolation except in case of extremely small river basins wholly contained within one province. Interprovincial or federal-provincial interests become involved in practically every river basin development now considered in Canada.

In addition, water resource development should be integrated with the broad social and economic goals of the overall community.

ESTABLISH FRAMEWORK

To achieve such integration, a framework of administrative agencies at all levels of government must be established. The agencies must be sufficiently staffed and adequately equipped to handle the complex task involved.

Mr. MacNeill suggested two possible interprovincial - federal agencies.

The first, a corporate form of administration, would be established by federal - provincial agreement or common statute and with federal and provincial representation and finance.

It would be responsible for planning and developing the water and associated resources of the rivers involved to achieve their best use and have powers similar to any corporate body.

The second, a commission established in the same way would prepare and adopt an integrated plan for development, but its plans, would have to have the approval of each government involved before becoming effective.

Kelowna Men Pass Exams In Accountancy

Seven Okanagan students of the B.C. Institute of Chartered Accountants are among other B.C. students who have achieved the highest standings in Canada in both the 1962 final uniform examination and the 1962 intermediate uniform examination, according to word received here today from the institute.

Successfully passing the 1962 intermediate uniform examination were B. C. Kent, G. G. Lang and J. R. Tompkins of Kelowna, and C. T. Kronbauer and L. G. Wynn of Vernon.

Successful candidates in the 1962 final uniform examinations were Derek Beardsell and G. A. Sladen of Kelowna and were awarded their CA degree.

The Beardsell family of Kelowna are a family of accountants, for besides Derek, latest successful candidate in his final examinations, brother Barry is in the final stage of his accountancy studies and sister Lesley is a grade 12 student at Kelowna Senior High School who also intends to take up accountancy when she completes her school education.

School District 23 Enrols 6,117 Pupils

Many Thoughtful Reasons For Flood Of New Pupils

As the King of Siam said, "It is a puzzlement!" If His Kingship was referring to his many children, his predicament is that of the Kelowna school board trustees today.

A phenomenal registration, at last count 6,117 students, are enrolled in the district's schools.

The enrollment has caused the odd elevated eyebrow at the board's sleek new administration offices on Harvey Avenue because...

The figure is right on the button to projected attendance for the 1966-67 school year!

Board secretary Fred Macklin said there have been increases of 417 students this year, strangely split almost 50-50 with 211 in elementary grades and 206 in secondary school.

Mr. Macklin said he knew of one family with seven young-sters in the school system here.

'CAN COPE' WE HOPE

Pressing a nervously-fluttering hand to his brow, the board secretary said "We can cope, we can cope, but certainly a surprise to the Board!"

AN EXPLANATION

Mr. Macklin's explanation on the human flood seeking out the three R's ranged from "Families are getting bigger or something" to "The Rogers family may have something to do with this but what are these people doing for a living here?"

Classroom extensions can't be completed fast enough.

Students at Dorothea Walker School in the Mission have overflowed into the community hall and the old school out there while their addition is being completed and kids at Glenmore are doubling up in two classes.

last year came to 87.4 per cent. Joan Topham, Peachland, next spoke to the student body, welcoming new and former pupils, and expressed high hope for the coming year.

CREDIT TO SCHOOL

Acting in the capacity of vice-principal last year, Mr. Zubick said he was aware that George Pringle High School has a good student body that again will prove a credit to school, home and community, and reminded pupils that they are fortunate in having capable staff members whose primary concern is for the pupils themselves.

He mentioned that for the first time commerce is available at George Pringle, and expressed the hope that pupils would take advantage of the course.

In wishing his students well, Mr. Zubick added that with a very modern school and facilities to enhance their success, he hoped that each one would attain the goal he has set. In Westbank Elementary School J. K. McCulloch is the principal, with four other staff members: Mrs. Dorrie Ouwehand, Miss Helen Gorman, Miss Doreen Dobbin and Miss M. D. Brown.

Elementary enrolment totals 173.

Boats Go Adrift In High Wind, No Damage

A brisk north wind set a few Yacht Club boats adrift and tore down innumerable branches overnight but gales subsided somewhat this morning.

However, yesterday's mercury registered an 85 with a 90 reading in Penitence; things are slightly cooler today and will be Saturday.

According to the official weather synopsis, warnings of winter were noted elsewhere in Western Canada as a sharp thrust of cold air brought snow to the Alberta foothills and below freezing temperatures in central B.C.

A few showers were also reported in the Interior but skies are to be fairly clear for today. Saturday will see considerable cloud in the northern part of the province but southern sections are expected to be sunny. Temperatures also are anticipated to move to the warmer side but tonight frost is forecast for much of the Interior.

POLICE COURT

John Peter Olinger, Hobson Rd., was fined $30 and costs or 10 days in jail on a charge of speeding. He pleaded guilty in Kelowna police court today. Also appearing was Selmer John Larsen of Rutland, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of impaired driving Sept. 7. He was released from custody on $200 cash bail and a date set for trial to Sept. 25. He will be represented by Patrick O'Neil.

SCHOOL AVERAGE HIGH

In welcoming former and new students, Mr. Zubick promised that by the end of the school year the latter would be glad to belong to George Pringle High, whose pupils last year performed exceptionally well, particularly those in Grades 11 and 12. School average for staff members introduced recommendations and passes

HORTICULTURAL REPORT

Fruit Maturing—Harvest Soon

The B.C. fruit crop, almost ready for the big harvest, especially in apples and pears, appears to be in excellent condition this year, with only a few exceptions.

Weather has been clear and warm with cooler nights throughout the reported areas. Killing frosts have been experienced in low-lying areas in the North Okanagan and Kootenay districts, according to this week's horticultural news letter of the Department of Agriculture from Kelowna.

The detailed report is as follows:

TREE FRUITS

Peaches: Oliver reports Elberta harvest is winding up. Cullage has been quite heavy. In Pentleton, harvest of V's is coming off and will be finished this weekend. A few J. H. Hale and Elberta peaches have been picked in the Pentleton district and harvest will be gentle at next week. There are still at one-third of the V's to be harvested in Summerland, and the crop is better than anticipated. Harvest of the three V varieties continues in the North Okanagan.

Prunes: Good quality prunes are being harvested at the coast, where some uneven ripening is reported. In Oliver, harvest of late prunes is increasing in volume but not yet at the peak. Pentleton reports size improving with harvest expected this weekend. The crop is maturing slowly in Creston and is not expected to reach picking maturity before September 15th.

Pears: Bartlett's are being harvested at the coast and Creston and are being cleaned up in Pentleton. Anjou harvest should begin next week in Oliver. Flemish Beauty harvest has commenced in the Similkameen and Vernon areas and Pentleton reports the variety almost ready.

Apples: McIntosh harvest is under way at Oliver, and although color is not too good as yet, in the Similkameen, Spot picking of this crop is slowly getting under way in the rest of the Okanagan, where main picking is about a week away. Kootenay harvest is about 10 days away. Size and color on this crop range from good to excellent. In Pentleton, Jonathan variety is two to three weeks from harvest. Delicious crops are taking on color and sizing well throughout, and Vernon reports Spartans have excellent color. At Creston, crop prospects improve every week, with a few Rob Roy and Wealthy apples still coming in.

SMALL FRUITS

Strawberries: Spring plantings are making good growth at the coast.

Blackberries: Harvest continues.

Blueberries: Fraser Valley reports indicate harvest still in progress.

Grapes: Early blues are still a week from harvest in the Okanagan.

VEGETABLES

Cucumbers: Supplies are plentiful in both the Okanagan and Fraser Valleys.

Tomatoes: Coast quality is variable and volume is increasing. Harvest for processing and fresh market continues in the Okanagan.

Cabbage: The winter crop is heading well at the coast.

Peppers: The Fraser Valley crop is maturing and the Okanagan supply is adequate.

Potatoes: Mid-season varieties and early Nette Gems are being harvested at the coast. Main crop is two to three weeks from harvest in the Okanagan, and Grand Forks reports some Nette Gems are being dug and shipped as earlies.

Onions: Coast grown Autumn Spice have been pulled and are of good quality. Spring planted crops are being pulled in the Okanagan.

Peas: Harvesting and vining is completed at the coast. Creston reports the seed pea harvest is completed and the crop is better than anticipated with an average yield of about 1,300 pounds per acre.

Beans: At the coast, harvest is tapering off with yields 20 to 30 per cent below normal.

Corn: Heavy volume is going to the fresh market at the coast. Prospects for the canning crop are excellent. Fresh corn prices are high on Vancouver Island. The Okanagan crop is almost cleaned up on a reasonably good season.

Carrots: Volume is steady on a good quality crop at the coast. Cauliflower and Broccoli are being harvested for the processor at the coast.

Brussel Sprouts: The coast reports this crop is doing well.

PESTS AND DISEASES

Codling moth entries are still being reported in the Okanagan and mites have shown a slight increase. Creston reports a severe wind on September 2 caused damage to peaches, pears and apples in a few orchards, but overall loss was small. Grand Forks reports aphids numerous on a wide variety of plants and Early Blight has 'ripened off' most potato fields.

Sales Tax Changes Are Off On The Wrong Foot

At their meeting in Victoria in August, among other things, the provincial premiers discussed how they could collect the sales tax on those goods purchased outside their own provinces.

Of course a resident of British Columbia, for instance, is supposed to declare such out-of-province purchases and pay the sales tax on it. This applies to all provinces that have a sales tax, but apparently it is not working that way. The people just are not "co-operating".

This situation would seem to apply particularly in Ontario and Quebec and it seems, Premier Lesage and Premier Robarts are determined to indulge in further tinkering with the cumbersome and bureaucracy-ridden tax structure.

What they are trying to get at is a form of tax avoidance which results when a resident of, say, Quebec, "imports" an article from Ontario, thereby avoiding the sales tax normally applicable in either province.

That this sort of tax avoidance is unfair goes without saying.

Yet it would seem that the measures which the two premiers are proposing—that merchants in any province be required to collect sales taxes for other provinces to which the merchandise may be destined—are a pretty poor remedy indeed.

In the first place, there is a considerable constitutional doubt whether a merchant in one province can be compelled to levy the sales tax of another province. Further, since merchants in foreign countries—in London, New York, Paris, Hong Kong, Honolulu or Tokyo, to name just a few centres from which Canadians frequently import merchandise, either personally or by mail-order—obviously couldn't be enlisted into the reciprocal tax gathering scheme, the proposed method of collection would be discriminatory by definition.

Then, too, the reciprocal provincial tax-levying scheme would involve the nation's already harried merchants in an enormous load of additional paperwork, and it would present the provincial tax sleuths with an enormous enforcement problem.

If anything, the current tax muddle—and Messrs. Lesage and Robarts' efforts to close the avoidance loophole—would seem to show clearly that what's really needed is a fundamental overhaul of the country's tax structure. Those undertaking the tax study laid on by Ottawa have a job ahead of them.

The Berlin Wall

It is easy to understand and even to sympathize with the anger and frustration which drives West Berliners to demonstrate against the Communist police and Soviet occupying troops in East Berlin. Many of them have close friends and relatives trapped behind the infamous wall which divides the city, and they are tempted to desperate measures when they see the Communists capturing or shooting down in cold blood anyone who attempts to cross the wall.

The West Berliners should understand, however, that there is nothing to gain and everything to lose when they give way to emotion by staging noisy demonstrations, throwing rocks across the wall, and attacking Soviet vehicles entering West Berlin. The East German authorities will not be intimidated; they are more likely, in fact, to retaliate by strengthening their security measures. Nor will the Western forces occupying West Berlin be incited to action against East Germany, for the simple reason that there is no useful action they can take. As Mayor Willy Brandt told one group of demonstrating West Berliners, it is easier to call for action than to think of what action to take.

The obvious danger of the demonstrations, on the other hand, is that they will degenerate into large-scale riots and lead to a serious incident. If the West Berliners ever managed to launch a serious attack upon the wall or got their hands on Soviet visitors, there is no telling where it would lead. Such a flare-up might touch off a battle which could develop into war, and that would benefit nobody. At best, if the war could be localized, many thousands of Germans on both sides of the wall would die.

If this sounds to West Berliners like the counsel of defeatism, there is one encouraging thought to which they can cling. The longer it stands, the more the Berlin wall does to discredit Communism in the eyes of the world, and bring nearer the day when East Berliners will be free of the Soviet tyranny. The wall was built by the East German Government with the sole purpose of preventing their subjects from escaping from Communism to the freedom represented by West Berlin. Every time an East German runs the grave risk of attempting to cross the wall, he testifies to the misery of life under Communist rule.

This is not to pretend that Communism will soon be vanquished, that the Berlin wall will soon come falling down. There is no such easy solution to the problem of Berlin in sight. The citizens of that divided city, in fact, may well continue to be in the front line of the Cold War for years to come. They will continue to be exposed to danger and frustration, and they must steel themselves to behave with patience and restraint.

If there are those West Berliners who cannot fact such a prolonged and nerve-racking strain, who feel that they must take some violent action to let off steam, then they should remove themselves from the city and make their homes in less dangerous parts of the world. In the Cold War, the front line is only for the calm, the brave and the level-headed.—Toronto Globe and Mail.

"Foreigners" Taking Houses

By M. McINTYRE HOOD
Special London (Eng.)
Correspondent
For The Daily Courier

BARCOMBE, Sussex — Because cottages and other small homes in Sussex villages are being bought at high prices by "foreigners," as people from outside the district are termed, many young people cannot find anywhere to live when they marry. They are obliged either to move away to other towns, or to stay uncomfortably with their in-laws.

This was the crux of a problem which was raised by Rev. William Webb, for 15 years rector of the village of Barcombe. He placed it before the executive committee of the Sussex Association of Parish Councils.

BIBLE BRIEFS

There is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few.—1. Sam. 14:6.

God's work is still accomplished "not by might, nor by power, but by My spirit."

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Long, Short, And The Tall

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is there any way to stimulate growth? I am 18, and only 5 feet 2½ inches tall. I have seen advertisements for exercises and devices to help a person gain height. Would these be of any use to me? I eat a lot but still weigh only 102.—K.H.

You'll have to look at your parents, and at your grandparents, because in general they establish how tall you are to be. There can be moderate variations, but tall beget tall, short beget short.

The reason gadgets don't "make people taller" is that Nature governs height. The ends of the long bones of the body change into an adult pattern when the body has grown to its ordained size. That is to say, while growth is still in progress, each long bone has a soft cap which permits growth. At the appropriate time, this cap hardens and further growth ceases.

Thus in good conscience the best I can say is that at 18 you probably have pretty well established your height. Good posture, and built up shoes to add an inch or so, will help.

Dear Doctor: I am 14. There are always plenty of articles about people wanting to lose weight, but how can you gain weight? I am 5 feet 8½ inches tall and weigh only 115 pounds. The doctor says all I have to do is eat more, but it seems that no matter how much I eat I can't gain.—MISS X

You've been devoting a lot of your energy (and food) to the needs of growing tall. Girls usually reach almost full height by the time of puberty. Then their figures begin maturing. At 14 a boy just keeps on growing upward for another four years or so.

So, Miss X, I wouldn't worry. It's very common for taller girls to fill out a little bit later. Yes, you're impatient. But the shorter girl or one of average height who has a mature figure at 15 or 16 may have to fight excess weight in the early 20's.

The girl who is thin at 14 has the advantage of being willowy at 20, slender in the 30's. As long as you stay healthy, don't worry too much about the pounds. If you just can't wait—but I hope you will not be too intent on fattening up—remember that the 900-calorie "reducing diets" that come in cans weren't originally developed for the sake of reducing. They were developed to make it possible to take, in liquid form, a reasonable well-balanced batch of calories. You could try adding a few calories a day, say 300, by drinking some of this "reducing" mixture as a between-meals bonus.

Dear Dr. Molner: How does one count between menstrual periods?—MRS. E.S.

You count from the first day of one period to the first day of the next. This gives the length of the "cycle" which usually is about 28 days.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is insulin ever used to help a person suffering from a nervous breakdown? What else is it used for, besides diabetes?—L.P.

Yes, insulin can be used to produce shock (in place of electroshock therapy) in some mental illnesses. Other than for diabetes, insulin may be used in special cases to increase appetite, and occasionally in other conditions like Paget's Disease.

OTTAWA REPORT

Canadian Potpourri

By PATRICK NICHOLSON

The Moscow Circus, which selected Canada for its first visit to North America, opened its tour in Ottawa last week. It established itself at once as a "must" for every circus buff. It is predominantly a human circus, with skilled and courageous men and women gaily earning the generous and almost non-stop applause of Ottawa's enthusiastic audience. But the trained bears of Valentin Filatov stole the show. Riding motor-bikes and scooters, roller-skating, boxing, juggling and acrobating, they excelled. Even as bicyclists they are so much more adroit than Ottawa messengers that Bunny Pound, that VIP among secretaries on Parliament Hill, went back stage and had a close look to see if they were real bears, or men sewn into bear skins.

A government official sent an order to the manager of that Russian circus: "During their stay in Canada, the animals will not be allowed to mingle with Canadian animals." Afraid the Banff bears might learn to ride bicycles, and clutter up the Trans-Canada Highway?

SOCIETY HIGHLIGHTS

Devotees of the columns which relate the trivialities of the not so trivial personalities have had two good laughs here lately.

"The German Ambassador and Mrs. Siegfried have returned to Canada from Murray Bay, P.Q.," announced one newspaper. So did Quebec separate? "Hon. Pierre Seigney, Associate Minister of National Defence, and Mr. Seigney entertained at a cocktail party last evening," said another newspaper. Who "wears the pants" in that family?

From Quebec we hear talk of adding a slogan to the province's automobile licence plates, the slogan to be appropriately: "Quebec—La Belle Province." New Brunswick plates carry the slogan "Pictou Province," but on the whole we unimaginationarily leave this evidence of civic pride and salesmanship to our friends in U.S.A. Licence plates commonly noted on Parliament Hill this summer include: "Illinois—Land of Lincoln," "District of Columbia—The Nation's Capital," "New Jersey—Garden State" and "Alabama—Heart of Dixie."

CANADIANISM TOO EASY?

When Parliament reassembles, some alert MP may prompt an enquiry into the basis upon which Canadian citizenship is granted to immigrants. One such is quoted as saying "I will always be 100 per cent Italian. My taking out Canadian immigration papers is a formality." These words have been widely attributed to the film actress Gina Lollobrigida, who lived briefly in Toronto, had a street named after her, then returned whence she came—perhaps never to return. We would welcome the lovely lady as a fellow citizen, but we would surely not welcome Canadianism being used as a public convenience.

Dr. Lotta Hiltzmanova, the dedicated executive director of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada, has just launched its appeal for $30,000 "Friendship Dollars." This worthy yearly good deed will as usual support many projects in the world's needy countries: such as feeding starving children, clothing the ragged, and training the ignorant. Doctor Lotta is also asking Canadian women to send to her Ottawa headquarters basic clothing for the destitute: the U.S.C. "Operation Bountiful" needs layettes, cardigans, blankets and warm practical clothing of all kinds.

OUR COPYRIGHT?

Some printers who were paid to print voters' lists at the recent federal election are selling extra copies of those lists to mail order houses and the like. Accurate up-to-date lists of names and addresses of householders are thus made available at minimum cost to promoters who wish to mail circulars. Complaints have been made about this practice, on the grounds that this is an infringement of the citizen's privacy, and that the voters' lists are prepared for official use at public expense, and should not be thus made available for commercial purposes.

Cut Down On Baseball

Dear Ann Landers: I am a boy 13 who has a schedule that even President Kennedy would not try to handle. I have a morning paper route which means I get up very early. In the winter it's still dark outside. On Mondays I have to play baseball. On Tuesdays I have a first aid meeting for Boy Scouts. On Wednesdays I have Boy Scouts. On Thursdays I have another baseball game. On Fridays I have a patrol meeting and a clarinet lesson. On Saturdays I have to take in a movie, then go to baseball practice. On Sundays there is church and church fellowship.

My father says I have to cut down on my activities because I'm trying to do too many things. My mother says I should keep on with all my activities because busy boys make good citizens. I think I am doing too much and would like to drop about three activities. Do you agree? — ON THE GO.

Dear Go: Which three? The paper route, church and clarinet lessons? Not on your life, Buddy. I agree with your mother. If you feel you're doing too many things, how about cutting down on the baseball?

Dear Ann: I'm a career girl, 20, who lives with my mother. She is 37 years old. We've been very close since Dad died in 1952.

Several months ago Mom started to date an attractive man. When I first met him I was stunned. He looked so boyish and certainly too young for Mom. When she told me he was 30 I was speechless.

The three of us had fun together until I sensed he was becoming interested in me, and not in a fatherly way. I decided it must be my imagination till Recently she made an air tour of the Australasian countries and attended a WCTU convention in Mexico City touring Jamaica, Trinidad, Barbados and Bermuda on her return. She was 84 and is survived by a son, Dr. John P. Wellwood, in New Westminster.

Okanagan Valley Pioneer's Great-Grand-Daughter Wed

By Okanagan Mission Correspondent

A lovely late summer wedding took place recently at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Kelowna, with Father R. D. Anderson officiating, when Ursula Patricia, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Surtees of "Greenways," Okanagan Mission, was united in marriage to Gerald Clayton Walls, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clayton Walls, Kelowna.

The bride, who is the great-granddaughter of the Hon. and Mrs. Coult Majoribanks, well known pioneer residents of Vernon and Kelowna, was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was of white satin, made on classic lines, featuring a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a straight skirt with back fullness ending in a short train. Her chapel veil of illusion net, was held in place by a coronet of red roses, and her bouquet was also of red roses and white satin ribbon, with tiny roses on the end of the ribbon streamers. For "something old" she wore a family heirloom pearl pendant. The soloist, Mrs. Reg. Martin, sang "O Perfect Love," and during the signing of the register she sang the "Ave Maria." The organist was Michael Lansdowne of Kelowna.

The bridesmaid was Miss Deirdre Gourle of Kelowna who wore a blue lace dress in street length, featuring a fitted bodice, full skirt, and jacket to match. She carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli and her hat was of matching blue lace. The flower girl, Frances Isabel Surtees, young sister of the bride, wore a similar dress of pale blue lace, with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her slippers were blue, her headpiece of pale blue lace, and she carried a basket of yellow gladioli.

Best man was Maurice Walls of New Westminster, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Alan Surtees, brother of the bride, and Patrick Walls of Kelowna, brother of the groom.

For the reception, which was held at the home of the bride's parents, the three-tiered wedding cake was flanked by antique silver candelsticks holding white tapers. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Surtees chose a smart blue silk print sheath model and a pillbox hat of blue. Her accessories and gardenia corsage were white. The groom's mother wore a flowered mauve and green sheath with a flowered hat in tone. She wore a white gardenia, and her accessories were white. The toast to the bride was made by Mr. Carl Tostenson of Kelowna. To this the groom ably replied. The many lovely gifts were on display in the house. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. Walls of New Westminster, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Agur of Summerland.

End Of Summer Peachland Fair Successful

Mrs. W. H. Wilson captured the Grand Aggregate Cup for the most points in all sections, at the Annual Peachland Fair sponsored by the Women's Institute, and held on August 31 in the Athletic Hall.

The Walters Trophy for peaches, went to two young Westbank agriculturists, Allison and Bob Paynter.

The BCFGA Trophy was proudly won by K. Doml, for the greatest number of points in all fruits.

Mr. A. Mash took home the Royal Canadian Legion cup for vegetables, while the Cameron Trophy, for the most points in flowers, is shared this year by Mrs. L. B. Fulk and Mrs. C. W. Altkens, who had tying points.

The door prize went to Mrs. L. Ayres and special prizes were won by Mrs. A. F. Johnson of Westbank; Mrs. K. Doml and Miss Jennifer Sanderson, both of Peachland.

Mrs. K. Williams and Mrs. D. Morgan of Trout Creek, in their summary, as judges, remarked that, although the number of entries was smaller than last year the quality was very good, that the canned items were nice and clean, and identical jars make very attractive displays.

FEATURE ATTRACTION — A feature attraction at the fair was a fine display of cut and polished stones, some mounted in a variety of jewelry settings by two local lapidaries, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moore, of "The Little Gem Shop."

The lighted showcase, with specimens named and labelled as to where they came from, drew considerable attention. Also shown were unique rock specimens.

There were also stones found in British Columbia, such as jade, rhodonite, amethyst, many types of agate, as well as some beautiful pieces of petrified wood.

Tea was served both afternoon and evening and Reeve C. O. Whinton presented trophies and prizes at the close of another successful fall fair.

Lighting Poses No Problem In Attractive Game Room

Creating around-the-room natural lighting was no problem for the owners of this light and bright game room. A large expanse of daylight-diffusing glass block was installed along one wall to give the room a broad, spacious look. In an opposite corner the regular windowed area requiring drapes and shades was replaced with a glass block area which provides over-the-shoulder lighting—the best for easy-chair reading. Insulating qualities of glass block are equivalent to those of an eight-inch masonry wall and therefore help hold the heating costs down during winter months. As the daylight-diffusing glass block permit no vision to the interior, the need for drapes and shades has been eliminated. And the only care required of glass blocks is a simple wiping with a damp cloth.

GAME ROOM GLAMOUR

Light and bright is the description for this room where "the game's the thing". And glass blocks are what make it so. The use of the wide band of glass blocks along the one wall stretches the room out and provides an abundance of natural daylight throughout the entire room.

POLICE COURT

VERNON (Staff)—John Toma, who pleaded not guilty to being intoxicated in a public place, was yesterday convicted and fined $50 and cost by Deputy Magistrate J. A. J. Illingdon.

Charles Bertelsen was sentenced to 14 days in jail after he was convicted on a charge of impaired driving. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

Carl Oswald Nerling was convicted and fined under two counts of the Motor Vehicle Act. Convicted of driving a motor vehicle without due care and attention, Nerling was fined $50 and costs; and for driving without a valid driver's licence, $25 and costs. Chamber of Commerce Airport Committee Chairman Lorne Irvine told Rotarians here Vernon needed two airports. The present field for light aircraft is inadequate he said and a suggested site near Swan Lake has met with chamber approval for an airport. In addition, negotiations are said to be proceeding for a tract of land about 10 miles north of Vernon as a second future major airport. It is expected that when plans are finalized and the land has been secured a bylaw will be presented to taxpayers.

ROAMIN' WITH ROBIN

By ROBIN BROWN
Courier Sports Writer

THINGS ARE STARTING TO PERK UP in the boxing world with the approach of what has been billed as the 'fight to end all fights' Sept. 25 between Floyd Patterson and challenger Sonny Liston.

THE LATEST OUT OF the lumbering Liston's camp is that he is REALLY mad at Patterson, reason being that he's only going to get 12 per cent of the gate... Patterson is behind the whole thing according to Sonny! He also goes as far as to say he's never been mad at any other opponent in his entire career... Just goes to show what a really sweet disposition this character has.

IT HAS BEEN MAINTAINED in several circles for a long time that Patterson has been ducking Liston because he is afraid of him... Just for the record we'll say here and now we do not, and never have believed this.

ANOTHER SWIPE AT PATTERSON during his tenure as champ has been that he's never really fought ANYONE!... by this of course we figure the Anti-Floyd Association means maybe Rocky Marciano or Joe Louis... They really had a ball when 'one punch' Ingo unleashed that right hand and felled the champ in their first fight. Great stuff, didn't we tell you! That Patterson can't take a punch! They had a field day alright... but what about the second fight? Patterson showed 'em just what he's made of in that one but that still wasn't enough for the old diehard Persecute Patterson contingent.

ALONG COMES TIS GREAT OAF LISTON with nothing behind 'him' but a shady police record and a one punch knockout of a 'has been' called Albert Westphal or was it Westover... or maybe it was Westlat!... Question: Who the heck was he anyway and why did this GREAT VICTORY so enhance Man Mountain Liston's chances that he jumped immediately into the limelight as the number one contender to take the crown away from Patterson?

THEY SAY PATTERSON NEVER FOUGHT anyone... what we'd like to know is who has Liston fought?... Not who has Patterson fought?

WHEN IT'S ALL OVER on the night of Sept. 25... when the smoke has cleared and the excitement dies down the following headline will appear: PATTERSON RETAINS WORLD HEAVYWEIGHT CROWN... Now we've said it and we're going to stick to it!

Floyd Patterson is the one man in recent times, in the heavyweight ranks at least, who has put the 'B' back in boxing. He may not be the greatest fighter of the past decade but he's certainly the best boxer to come along since the days of the Brown Bomber!

WHEN SONNY LISTON STEPS into the ring with the champ, it is our decided opinion that it will be the first time he's every fought ANYONE.

Cepeda Leads Giants To Big Win Over LA

Three weeks ago, manager Al Dark of San Francisco Giants scored slugger Orlando Cepeda with a $50 fine for failing to run out a grounder. Cepeda walked to first base Thursday night and Dark smiled.

The Giants' baby bull, on a hitting rampage since he was fined and benched Aug. 19, walked with the bases loaded in the ninth inning. The tie-breaking run propelled second-place San Francisco to a 9-6 National League triumph over the league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers.

Cepeda's walk on a 3-and-2 count forced in Chuck Hiller with the run that snapped a 5-5 deadlock. Harvey Kuenn then followed with a three-run double off Ron Perranoski, clinching the victory that moved the Giants to within 1 1/2 games of the Dodgers.

Cepeda, last year's league home run and runs-batted-in king, was fined by Dark at Milwaukee for not running out a game-ending grounder and was benched because he seemed tired. When he returned to action, Cepeda, started to make up for lost time.

The 24-year-old right-handed swinger increasing his RBI total to 18 in the 17 games since the day Dark set him down, wound up with three runs batted in against the Dodgers as the Giants took the key four-game series 3-1.

REDS MOVE UP

The Dodgers defeat enabled the idle Cincinnati Reds, in third place, to climb to within 4 1/2 games of the top.

'Spurs Having Tough Time In League Play

By M. McINTYRE HOOD
Special To The Daily Courier

LONDON — This is going to be a tough soccer season for the teams battling it out for the top places in the first division of the English League. Already it is emerging that Tottenham, good as they are, are not going to have things all their own way. And the challenging teams, reinforced by expensive purchases of players, are showing that they have acquired something of the class of the famous Spurs. As I predicted in a pre-season summary, Everton are at last showing the benefit of shrewd player purchases over the last two years. Their stars are now welded into a team, and they are now the only team with full points in the first division.

They showed power by defeating Manchester United, a feat that takes some doing. Manchester United can only be beaten if their opponents can find a way to keep the mercurial Denis Law in subjection. Everton had just the man to do the trick in their Scottish international half-back, Jimmy Gabriel.

He subdued Law, and Everton won. Law, who had all the critics raving with his recent performance against Arsenal, was just another onside forward struggling against a superb half-back.

SPURS IN FORM

Spurs have recovered from their recent defeat at Aston Villa, and had sweet revenge when they beat the Villans 4-1 at White Hart Lane. Greaves was again the hero with two magnificent goals in the Spurs victory. Wolverhampton, who started the season with splendid wins, dropped their first point to West Ham, in a goalless draw, but are still second to Everton in the league table. I do not anticipate that Villa and the Forest will remain up there for very long. Arsenal, handicapped by injuries, have not maintained their excellent start, but will be better when they can turn out a full side.

So the teams I expect to see putting up a great battle for the league honors are Wolves, Spurs, Everton, Manchester United, in spite of their present lowly position and Arsenal. Ipswich, the current league champions, have dropped back to what is more like their proper level, with only three points in their first four matches.

CHELSEA HALTED

There are now no teams with full points in the second division. The triumphal march of Chelsea was rudely halted at Scunthorpe, where they went down by 3-0. The closeness of the second division race is shown by the fact that five teams, Huddersfield, Chelsea, Portsmouth, Norwich and Rotherham are tied at the top of the league table. All have six points for four games.

Queen's Park Rangers are so far justifying my pre-season expectations and are high and dry at the top of the third division. They have lost only one point and are still undefeated. But one point behind, tied in second place, are Port Vale, Chester, Southend, Peterborough United and Watford. Queen's Park Rangers have won their victories by decisive margins. Yet in conversation with one of their veteran players, I was told by him that the side has not yet produced as good football as they are capable of playing. Heaven help their opponents if they strike the form of which he believes they are capable.

Kelowna To Host Next B.C. Baseball Final

An executive-player meeting of the Kelowna Labatts Thursday night agreed to host the B.C. Amateur Baseball finals here on Labor Day weekend next season.

Club president Reg Merriam, elected also to provincial amateur association president last weekend, told the meeting that the Labatts would be required to post a $1,500 bond to cover the costs of travelling for visiting teams.

No immediate action was taken in the matter of raising this money but it was suggested that $10 donations be solicited from local individuals and businesses. These would be either in the form of a loan repayable either in part or full according to gate receipts during the tournament. Another suggestion put forward was an advance sale of season tickets in the above amount.

The meeting decided to forego any immediate action in the matter as it was felt this would not be an opportune time now that the season has concluded for the year.

The president revealed that the number of teams on Vancouver Island had increased to 13 which had necessitated splitting the island into two areas with the result that two teams from there would be participating in the tournament. Others interested were the lower mainland representatives the Prince George - Quesnel and Terrace areas.

There is a possibility of seven teams taking part in the tournament, a double knockout affair, which will mean working on a very tight schedule over the three-day period. It will mean playing a Friday night game and also making no allowances for the weather factor.

The Okanagan Mainline League will have two entries, one of which will be the Labatts, regardless whether they win the pennant or not.

MONTREAL (CP) — What happened to the telephone line? That was a beef from Dave Skrien Thursday night.

It came after his British Columbia Lions bowed 21-18 to Montreal Alouettes in Canadian Football League interlocking play.

The coach claimed the telephone line between his bench and the spotter's box was severed after the first half.

He felt the skullbanger was a factor in British Columbia's downfall. At halftime the Lions led 5-0.

Fullback George Dixon scored three touchdowns in a five-minute fourth-quarter spree to give the Als the win. Skrien granted that it was "missed tackles that killed us" but "we couldn't make the necessary adjustments on defence because we had no word from our spotter."

DIXON SHAKES LOOSE

The Als were down 12-0 when the 195-pound Dixon shook loose for touchdown runs covering 15, nine and 22 yards before the crowd of 19,350.

Skrien said Montreal's two-quarterback formation — featuring Hawaiian-born Joe Francis and rookie Sandy Stephens — was not particularly bothersome to the Lions.

SALVAGE FOUR POINTS

In the opening quarter they twice drove deep into Montreal territory and then salvaged only four points on an 18-yard field goal by Vic Kristopaitis and a single that came when another of his attempts for a three-pointer was wide.

But quarterback Joe Kapp kept the Lions moving with a brilliant short passing game—he hit 16 of 24 attempts with a top throw of 23 yards—until Montreal's final-quarter surge.

Dixon's first and third touchdowns came on similar plays, blunts off his left tackle. For the second he skirted his right end. All three were converted by Bobby Jack Oliver.

A fumble by British Columbia's fullback Bud Beamer led to Dixon's game-winning run. Dick Schell, a Montreal interior linebacker, recovered the fumble and on the next play—at 11:21—Dixon tore across from 22 yards out.

CLOCK RUNS OUT

The Lions came back to score with 24 seconds left in the game. Kapp throwing to halfback Mack Burton for an 18-yard touchdown after a downfield drive marked by five first-down plays in six scrimmages. Then the clock ran out.

British Columbia picked up 25 first downs to Montreal's 18 and in total yardage rolled for 433 against 313 for the Als.

Francis and Stephens completed five passes apiece, with Francis trying nine and Stephens 12. B.C. made two interceptions — Stephens the victim both times—while one of Kapp's tosses was picked off by Montreal.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By S. JAY BECKER
Top Record-Holder in Masters Individual Championship Play.

QUIZ
You are South, both sides vulnerable. The bidding has been:

North East South West
1♥ 2♠ ?
What would you now bid with each of the following four hands?

1. ♠A J 8 5 3 ♥7 2 ♦J 5 ♣K Q 9
2. ♠Q 8 3 ♥Q 8 3 ♦K J 9 4 ♠7
3. ♠K J 3 ♥Q 7 4 ♦A Q 5 2 ♣K J 8
4. ♠A J 10 ♥K Q 4 2 ♦K J 8 5 3 ♣—

1. Double. This will probably produce the best result. At the point when North opens the bidding with a heart, we don't know whether or not our side has a minimum opening bid, game is unlikely. This is in line with the theory that it takes two opening bids (or their equivalent) to make a game—and we have less than an opening bid.

The situation does not change when East overcalls two clubs. If we were to bid two spades and it turned out that partner had minimum values, we might well be on the way towards a game that is not in the cards.

Faced with this uncertainty, it is better to reach for a practically sure profit by doubling two clubs. If North has a normal opening bid and accepts the business double, East will probably be defeated one or two tricks. A bid in the hand is worth two in the bush.

2. Two hearts. The only choice is between two diamonds and two hearts. The chief objection to a two diamond bid is that it forces partner to speak again in a hand where it might be better to stop at a low level.

Furthermore there is the danger that two diamonds will elicit a two heart bid from partner, in which case a pass by us would amount to suppression of heart support, while a raise to three hearts would show more values than we actually have.

3. Three notrump. For practical purposes, game is certain and we do not bother to double two clubs, even though the hand is stronger defensively than the one given in question one. The jump to three notrump furthergame. If partner has just a minimum opening bid, game is unlikely. This is in line with the theory that it takes two opening bids (or their equivalent) to make a game—and we have less than an opening bid.

4. Three clubs. This hand is likely to produce a slam, provided partner does not have wasted club strength. It is true we have only 14 high-card points, but that is not the criterion in distributional hands.

The immediate cuebid usually designates a void, though it may also show first-round control in the form of the ace. It implies good support for partner's suit and shows a pronounced interest in reaching a slam contract. The follow-up depends on partner's response to the cuebid.

Planetary aspects now promise an enjoyable day. Leisure time pursuits, outdoor interests, social life and romance are most generously influenced, but practically all endeavors should have pleasing results.

Earthquake Victims Buried

TEHRAN (AP) — The bodies of 7,500 earthquake victims have been buried in 31 devastated mud brick villages, Iran's Red Lion and Sun (Red Cross) reported today.

Reports from as many as 60 more stricken villages were still not completed. The staggering burial figure indicated the toll from last Saturday's quake would go higher than the 10,000 dead estimated previously.

The 60-second quake was the worst in Iran's modern history. More earthquakes near Turkey's eastern borders with Russia and Iran were registered at Istanbul today.

The quakes continued this morning at Igdir, about 20 miles west of the Soviet-Armenian border of east Turkey. About 5,000 houses are reported to be uninhabitable.

Cuba A "Tropical 1984" Claims British Writer

LONDON (CP) — The Daily Mail says that in 3½ years Fidel Castro has turned Cuba into a "tropical 1984." "All pretence now is tossed aside," writes the newspaper's correspondent, Keith Morfett, "Cubans are at least learning the meaning of the MIGs in their skies and the 'big brother' images of Lenin and Mao Tse-tung that look down from walls, billboards and banners."

Morfett, writing from Miami to avoid censorship, says Havana has become a barren city, a place where you cannot buy an egg but where there are dozens of booklets on "correcting contradictions in the minds of the people."

NEW COURSES OFFERED
VANCOUVER (CP) — The extension department of the University of B.C. will offer courses in politics, economics, philosophy, sociology and other fields during the Living Room Learning Series starting next month. About 100 groups are expected to register.

armaments, food and oil will form the island's only lifeline.

Canadian Cost Of Living Hits New Peak — 131.4

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian living costs, rising in July for the third straight month under the pressure of higher food prices, hit a new peak Aug. 1.

The consumer price index climbed to 131.4 on Aug. 1 from 131.0 a month earlier, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

B.C. BRIEFS

NIGERIANS TO TRAIN
VICTORIA (CP) — Six Nigerian navy cadets will commence training next week at HMCS Venture under the NATO exchange program.

LINER DUE
VANCOUVER (CP) — The Orsova, 23,000-ton P and O-Orient liner, docks here Saturday, with 337 of 1,352 passengers disembarking. Orsova is from the United Kingdom.

WANT $1,000 MORE
VERNON (CP) — The United Appeal drive here will aim for $35,000 when it opens Oct. The figure is about $1,000 more than was collected last year.

RECORD SQUASH
VERNON (CP) — A record banana squash has been grown by Harry Austin of Armstrong. It measured 43 inches in length, 34 in girth and weighed 70 pounds.

MORE CHERRIES
VERNON (CP) — The 1962 cherry crop totalled 388,907 crates, B.C. Tree Fruits announced here. The 1961 total was 376,652 crates.

The advance of four-tenths of a point in the cost-of-living yardstick, which is based on 1949 prices equalling 100, caps a three-month rise of 13-10 points from the May 1 level of 130.1.

In a year the index has risen 2 3-10 points — 1.8 per cent — from its mark of 129.1 on Aug. 1, 1961.

The DBS report did not specify the economic factors behind the recent increase, but the three-month climb coincides with the May 3 devaluing of the Canadian dollar to 82½ U.S. cents. This has increased the Canadian dollar price of imports and also the price of a number of Canadian goods—especially foods like beef and pork — where prices are governed by American markets.

FOOD PRICES RISE
Higher food prices were the overriding cause of the recent increases.

The index of food costs—which makes up 27 per cent of the total index—jumped to a record 128.4 on Aug. 1 from 127.0 a month earlier. It now is nearly four points higher than the May 1 level of 124.5.

During July there was a sharp seasonal rise in egg prices and "substantial" price boosts for beef and pork. Price tags on cuts of beef topped their previous peaks set in the 1951-52 period. Also costlier were lamb, chicken, turkey, canned fruits, grapefruit, sugar and flour. There were seasonal price declines for most fresh fruits and vegetables.

Industrial wages have been rising too. The index of average industrial wages and salaries at July 1—latest data available—was 186.6 compared with 186.1 a month earlier.

Apart from the boost in food prices during July, there were no significant changes in the basket of goods and services counted in the consumer price index.
